

Established in 1976 at the University of Maryland and now part of the School of Public Affairs, the Institute for Philosophy and Public Policy was founded to conduct research into the conceptual and normative questions underlying public policy formation. This research is conducted cooperatively by philosophers, policy makers and analysts, and other experts both within and outside of government.

To make its research readily available to a broad audience, the Institute for Philosophy and Public Policy publishes this quarterly journal. Articles are intended to advance philosophically-informed debate on current policy choices; the views presented are not necessarily those of the Institute or its sponsors.

Editorial Policy: While the principal mission of Philosophy & Public Policy Quarterly (ISSN 1067-2478) is to present the work of Institute members, the work of individuals who are not members of the Institute also appears in the Quarterly from time to time. Interested individuals should direct submissions to the editor.

Correspondence with Contributors: Readers may direct their correspondence to authors, whose mailing addresses and e-mail addresses follow their articles, or in care of the editor.

Subscriptions: A subscription to Philosophy & Public Policy Quarterly is free of charge to anyone making a request. Please let us know of changes in address, or whether you are receiving multiple copies of the Quarterly.

Electronic Access: The Institute for Philosophy and Public Policy directs interested individuals to its Web site: www.puaf.umd.edu/ippp. Current and past issues of the Quarterly are available on the site. Copies of articles may be downloaded for personal use free of charge. Downloading for classroom or other use requires permission.
